

sound camp

30 April <sup>12pm</sup>
– 1 May <sup>2pm</sup>

20
22

Stave Hill Ecological Park SE16 6AX

REVEIL

SC9

PITCH

Join us for Reveil / SC9 at Stave Hill Ecological Park and online.

sound

(a) welcomes

PITCH

A new portable auditorium by Public Works and Michael Speers, built with Bizzie Bodies Arts Club and South London Gallery Art Assassins, hosts sounds of Reveil: a 24+1 hr radio broadcast that follows sunrise around the earth on Dawn Chorus Day.

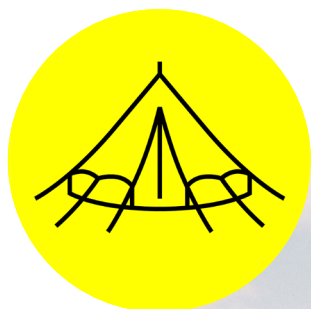

From 12 noon on Saturday 30th April to lunchtime on Sunday 1st May, a programme of workshops, walks, talks and performances will take place in PITCH and across the site:

- Acoustic Commons Study Group (Ella Finer, John Bingham-Hall, Bianca Stoppani, Luisa Ulyett, James Wilkes, Flora Pitrolo, Lawrence Bradby, Tushar Hathiramani, Lis Huang, Martin Kohout)
- Alluvial Soundings (Margarida Mendes, Stephen Shiell, Hannah White – Blanc Sceol)
- Sound walk from Lambeth Garden Museum (Carole Wright – Blak Outside)
- Waterways walk with Inspiral London
- DIY radio workshop with Hannah Kemp-Welch, Sasha Engelmann, Brigitte Hart and Georgia Muenster (Shortwave Collective)
- Speaker building with Nick Sigsworth (Tanum Sound System)
- Pinhole photography / solargraphs with Ky Lewis
- Bat box building and site walk with Rebeka Clark (Stave Hill, TCV)
- Field weaving with Common Agency Projects (Shane Waltener and Laura Glaser)
- Field recording how-to with Volkan Kiziltug and Ciara Drew
- Tree climbing workshop with Marcus Carambola (Rebels Of Climb)
- Bat walk with Iain Boulton (London Bat Group)
- Dawn Chorus walks with naturalists John Cadera and Richard Page-Jones
- River Clean with Surfers Against Sewage

Sound camp is free to attend. Numbers on workshops are limited. Please reserve to be sure of a place.

A small number of places is available to camp overnight in the Stave Hill meadow. Booking essential.

Stave Hill, Rotherhithe. 25 August 1985

DAWN

CHORUS

DAY

soundtent.org

sound camp

9

30 April <sup>12pm</sup>
– 1 May <sup>2pm</sup>

20
22

Stave Hill Ecological Park SE16 6AX

REVEIL

SC9

PITCH

Join us for Reveil / SC9 at Stave Hill Ecological Park and online.

sound

(a) welcomes

PITCH

A new portable auditorium by Public Works and Michael Speers, built with Bizzie Bodies Arts Club and South London Gallery Art Assassins, hosts sounds of Reveil: a 24+1 hr radio broadcast that follows sunrise around the earth on Dawn Chorus Day.

From 12 noon on Saturday 30th April to lunchtime on Sunday 1st May, a programme of workshops, walks, talks and performances will take place in PITCH and across the site:

- Acoustic Commons Study Group (Ella Finer, John Bingham-Hall, Bianca Stoppani, Luisa Ulyett, James Wilkes, Flora Pitrolo, Lawrence Bradby, Tushar Hathiramani, Lis Huang, Martin Kohout)
- Alluvial Soundings (Margarida Mendes, Stephen Shiell, Hannah White – Blanc Sceol)
- Sound walk from Lambeth Garden Museum (Carole Wright – Blak Outside)
- Waterways walk with Inspiral London
- DIY radio workshop with Hannah Kemp-Welch, Sasha Engelmann, Brigitte Hart and Georgia Muenster (Shortwave Collective)
- Speaker building with Nick Sigsworth (Tanum Sound System)
- Pinhole photography / solargraphs with Ky Lewis
- Bat box building and site walk with Rebeka Clark (Stave Hill, TCV)
- Field weaving with Common Agency Projects (Shane Waltener and Laura Glaser)
- Field recording how-to with Volkan Kiziltug and Ciara Drew
- Tree climbing workshop with Marcus Carambola (Rebels Of Climb)
- Bat walk with Iain Boulton (London Bat Group)
- Dawn Chorus walks with naturalists John Cadera and Richard Page-Jones
- River Clean with Surfers Against Sewage

Sound camp is free to attend. Numbers on workshops are limited. Please reserve to be sure of a place.

A small number of places is available to camp overnight in the Stave Hill meadow. Booking essential.

View from Stave Hill. 1992

DAWN

CHORUS

DAY

soundtent.org

sound camp

30 April <sup>12pm</sup>
– 1 May <sup>2pm</sup>

20
22

Stave Hill Ecological Park SE16 6AX

REVEIL

SC9

PITCH

Join us for Reveil / SC9 at Stave Hill Ecological Park and online.

sound

(a) welcomes

PITCH

A new portable auditorium by Public Works and Michael Speers, built with Bizzie Bodies Arts Club and South London Gallery Art Assassins, hosts sounds of Reveil: a 24+1 hr radio broadcast that follows sunrise around the earth on Dawn Chorus Day.

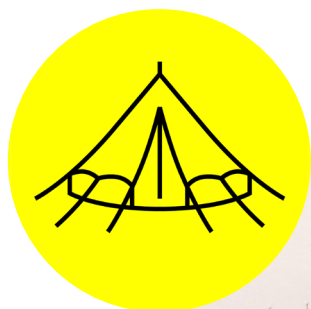

From 12 noon on Saturday 30th April to lunchtime on Sunday 1st May, a programme of workshops, walks, talks and performances will take place in PITCH and across the site:

- Acoustic Commons Study Group (Ella Finer, John Bingham-Hall, Bianca Stoppani, Luisa Ulyett, James Wilkes, Flora Pitrolo, Lawrence Bradby, Tushar Hathiramani, Lis Huang, Martin Kohout)
- Alluvial Soundings (Margarida Mendes, Stephen Shiell, Hannah White – Blanc Sceol)
- Sound walk from Lambeth Garden Museum (Carole Wright – Blak Outside)
- Waterways walk with Inspiral London
- DIY radio workshop with Hannah Kemp-Welch, Sasha Engelmann, Brigitte Hart and Georgia Muenster (Shortwave Collective)
- Speaker building with Nick Sigsworth (Tanum Sound System)
- Pinhole photography / solargraphs with Ky Lewis
- Bat box building and site walk with Rebeka Clark (Stave Hill, TCV)
- Field weaving with Common Agency Projects (Shane Waltener and Laura Glaser)
- Field recording how-to with Volkan Kiziltug and Ciara Drew
- Tree climbing workshop with Marcus Carambola (Rebels Of Climb)
- Bat walk with Iain Boulton (London Bat Group)
- Dawn Chorus walks with naturalists John Cadera and Richard Page-Jones
- River Clean with Surfers Against Sewage

Sound camp is free to attend. Numbers on workshops are limited. Please reserve to be sure of a place.

A small number of places is available to camp overnight in the Stave Hill meadow. Booking essential.

Stave Hill Ecological Park. 1989

DAWN

CHORUS

DAY

soundtent.org

) acoustic commons (

